

Michelle Obama and the King and the Queen of Spain drink Remírez de Ganuza Reserva 2003 during their lunch at Marivent.

Michelle Obama, and her daughter Sasha, flew to Palma de Mallorca on Sunday 8th August to conclude their holidays in Spain with a lunch with the King and Queen of Spain at the Marivent Palace. Lunch was Andalusian-style chilled gazpacho soup, chargrilled turbot, veal escalopes with mustard, Oriental rice with sauteed mushrooms, a Mallorca-style vegetable ratatouille and sliced fruit with ice-cream, accompanied by a Marques de Riscal white wine and a 2003 Reserva Remírez de Ganuza (red wine from the Bodegas Remírez de Ganuza)
